PRO LIFE CORNER

“Motherhood then becomes a kind of priesthood. She brings God to man by preparing the flesh in which the soul will be implanted, she brings man to God in offering the child back again to the Creator...She is nature's constant challenge to death, the bearer of cosmic plentitude, the herald of eternal realities, God's great cooperater”. Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

Glimpses of the Life of Venerable Bishop Baraga

O' Mary...Jesus loves you greatly...He promises that at all times He is ready to help us at your request...”

St. Vincent de Paul

Today we reflect on the care and love of Jesus for us.

Your gifts to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will show that you are indeed the disciple of Jesus, The Good Shepherd, as it will bring your love to those who live in fear and doubt, loneliness and dread.

Fr. Jose will be in India May 10—June 15

Fr. Ronald Timock will be here with us during that time.

God Bless you both in your travels.

Serran Prayer for Vocations

O God, who wills not the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live, grant we beseech You, through the intercession of Blessed mary, ever virgin, Saint Joseph, her spouse, Saint Junipero Serra, and all the saints, an increase of laborers for your Church, fellow laborers with Christ, to spend and consume themselves for souls, through the same Jesus christ, Your Son, Our Lord, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever, Amen.

We wish all our Religious Ed students and their teachers a very happy and safe summer.
See you in the fall!

GOSPEL MEDITATION—May 8, 2022—Fifth Sunday of Easter

“Human beings, while capable of the worst, are also capable of rising above themselves, choosing again what is good, and making a new start.” (Pope Francis)
We have a difficult time figuring out what is true and best for us. There are many voices talking and so many trying to get our attention. We wrongly convince ourselves that the true voice is the voice of progress, the one that speaks of contemporary wants and desires, enticing us with the latest trends and causes. We are taught, by listening to the voices around us, that truth is found in feelings and thought, and ideals must match current and popular human wants. Because we feel a particular way it must be true. Then, we find a shepherd who empathizes with us and affirms us. We follow that voice even though listening to that voice will render us powerless and lead us to harm. There are many with me in this procession to this pasture. I must be on the right path and listening to the right voice.

We are very confused. What can keep us safe and from harm? Where do we go to find life, love, and happiness? Jesus tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to get to Truth, who is God, is through him. There is no other way. The Church, the gate around God’s pasture of life, is charged with the mission of directing us where God desires that we go. In the midst of all of the conflicting voices around us, the voice of truth is often muffled in all of the noise, but it beckons us to a life of virtue and grace. Helping us understand who we are and where we have to be, it discerns the voice of God, providing us with the safety net we need to stay straight on our path to life eternal.

We have to trust the voice of God, the true Shepherd, even when it does not mirror what we want and what others may believe. Faith goes way beyond feeling and involves a radical trust in Someone who can lead us and form us. At day’s end, if we do not know to find our way home, we will be truly lost. ©LPi

One Ring to Serve Them All

Pop Pius X (1835-1914) was a very humble man who had a saintly mother, Margarita Sanson. Because they were so poor, she worked as a washer woman and a school janitor to earn enough money so that he could go to the seminary. (In those days, the family had to pay for seminarian’s education.) When he was installed as Pope, his mother was present, and as was the custom, she kissed his large papal ring. She then presented her tiny hand with her wedding ring and said, “Now you kiss my ring—for without it, you never would have received yours!” Happy Mother’s Day!
