PRO LIFE CORNER

“Abortion and racism are both symptoms of a fundamental human error. The error is thinking that when someone stands in the way of our wants, we can justify getting that person out of our lives. Abortion and racism stem from the same poisonous root, selfishness.”

Glimpses of the Life of Venerable Bishop Baraga

“Our Indians have the greatest desire to read and they love their prayer books with passion. They take them on their trips and at night when they go to bed they read and sing.”

Fr. Frederic Baraga

St. Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel, we find the truth that loving God isn't merely a matter of fervor in our hearts, but that it must be expressed in doing good for the sake of others.

This month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to show that we indeed love our neighbors by assisting many. Thank you!

Rylan Thomas Reddinger

welcome to our parish family!

Rylan was baptized recently at St. Agnes.
He is the son of Andrew & Julie Reddinger

May God bless you all.

CHANGE COLLECTION

Please remember we have change collection canisters at both St. Agnes and St. Cecilia.
Kindly deposit any spare change you may have into the canisters.

Every little bit helps.

Any amount is greatly appreciated. Thank You!

Please pray for the Eternal Repose of the souls of:

GOSPEL MEDITATION—Oct. 29, 2023—30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: “Give alms.” Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here’s why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That’s what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God’s loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don’t wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.
