

CHRIST THE KING

@junevreyes

Almighty, everlasting God, Who in Thy beloved Son, King of the whole world, hast willed to restore all things anew; grant in Thy Mercy that all the families of nations, rent asunder by the wound of sin, may be subjected to His most gentle rule. Who with Thee lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

WELCOME

PRO LIFE CORNER

Abortion is the only event that modern liberals think too violent and obscene to portray on TV. This is not because they are squeamish or prudish. It is because if people knew what abortion really looked like, it would destroy their pretense that it is a civilized answer to the problem of what to do about unwanted babies.

Glimpses of the Life of Venerable Bishop Baraga

“The desire to be a priest dawned in my soul on December 1st, with such vehemence, that I decided to enter the seminary as soon as I have finished my law studies.” Frederick Baraga

St. Vincent de Paul

Today as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear Jesus say: “...whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.”

Knowing that we find the face of Christ in the poor, this month, through your gifts, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul was able to serve many families, providing in food, for utility and rent bills, etc. Thank You!

Are You a Thrivent Member?

There will be a meeting of all Thrivent members from St. Agnes & St. Cecilia Parishes, at 6pm, on Tuesday, November 28th, in the St. Agnes Little Flower Room following the 5:30pm Mass.

The purpose of this meeting is to explain how to use your Thrivent Action Teams, how to direct your Choice Dollars, and to answer your questions. Both parishes have been approved and are now recipients to receive these Thrivent funds.

Thrivent representatives Dean and Jeanne Kaczorowski and Cathy Peruzzi will be hosting the meeting.

GOSPEL MEDITATION—Nov. 26, 2023

Our Lord Jesus Christ King of the Universe

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, “What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?”

I’m a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king’s most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, “this is our king” is to say, “we exist as a community, and we have a future.” Kingship isn’t primarily about the power of one person or family. It’s about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It’s not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let’s be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends. — Father John Muir ©LPi
